

DID YOU KNOW THAT...

- Dali's favourite flower was a Tuberosa.
In Spain they call it 'The penis of St. Joseph'. When you crush the flower between your fingers, a slippery substance is released...that made Dali think of sperm.
- Dali said about himself that he was impotent.
- Dali's favourite painters were Vermeer and Velázquez.
- Dali loved luxury and gold.
- Dali had an obsession for microbes and bacteria.
- Green was the unlucky colour of Dali.
- The parrot was the animal that Dali hated the most.
- Dali claimed to have Arabic roots...his name 'Dali' means 'the longing' in Arabian. He said that this was the reason why he longed for luxury, gold, exaggeration and oriental clothes.
- His favourite dish was baby lobster in chocolate sauce.

this information comes from Amanda Lear's book 'Mon Dali'*